Prime Minister's visit to US

2020. SHRI V.V. RAGHAVAN:

SHRI J. CHITHARANJAN:

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) the progress achieved in implementation of the vision of new relationship between India and United States after the Prime Minister's visit to United States;

(b) the progress achieved in further expansion of mutually beneficial co-operation in the areas such as trade and commerce, finance and investment, energy and environment, health, science and technology and counter terrorism; and

(c) the progress achieved in investment of capital from U.S. in the country since March 2000?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI OMAR ABDULLAH): (a) After the Prime Minister's visit to the United States in September 2000, the new Administration under President George Bush gave early indications of its desire, not only to continue with the implementation of the vision of the new relationship between the two countries, but also to broaden and deepen it. The two sides have since maintained regular contacts, including at the highest political level.

(b) As provided for under the framework of the dialogue architecture, expansion of the co-operation continues as an ongoing process, covering areas such as trade and commerce, finance and
